

COCP-83-2022

Date of Decision :07.02.2022

Kirna Devi

...Petitioner

versus

Sandeep Garg

....Respondent

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice B.S. Walia

Present : Mr. Deepak Aggarwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

B.S. Walia, J. (VC)

1. Case is being taken up for hearing through Video Conferencing due to Covid-19 pandemic.

2. Prayer in the petition is for initiating proceedings against the respondent for intentional and willful defiance of order, Annexure P/1 dated 09.09.2021, in CRWP-8552-2021.

3. A perusal of order dated 09.09.2021, reveals that CRWP-8552-2021 was disposed of by directing the Senior Superintendent of Police, Patiala, to look into representation dated 31.08.2021, qua the limited prayer of protection of life and liberty of the petitioner and after making necessary inquiries to take appropriate action in accordance with law. Learned counsel contends that although the instant petition was filed on account of failure of the respondent to do the needful, now compromise has been entered into between the petitioner and her husband and statement in respect thereto was also made before the police authorities and that in view of the same, the petitioner is not interested in pursuing the contempt petition and the same may be disposed of as such while granting liberty to the petitioner to take action in accordance with law, if at a subsequent stage the circumstances of the case so warrant.

4. Notice has not yet been issued in the instant case.

5. Accordingly, in the light of the position noted above as well as statement of learned counsel for the petitioner, no action under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 is called for against the respondent at this stage. Accordingly, the contempt petition is disposed of as such with the liberty as prayed for.
