

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR-536-2020

DATE OF DECISION: SEPTEMBER 21, 2022

DINESH GUPTA & ANOTHER ...PETITIONERS

VERSUS

ANKIT GUPTA & OTHERS ...RESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE MANOJ BAJAJ.

PRESENT: MR. RAKESH GUPTA, ADVOCATE FOR THE PETITIONERS.

MANOJ BAJAJ, J.(ORAL)

The petitioners have filed this revision petition under Article 227 Constitution of India for setting aside the order dated 20.12.2019 (Annexure P-1), passed by the Civil Judge(Jr.Divn.), Chandigarh whereby amendment of the execution petition has been allowed.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that the dispute between the father and son stands amicably settled and a written compromise is executed on 8.2.2020. He has produced a copy of the said compromise and submits that the same has also been produced before the appellate Court, where the judgment and decree dated 12.1.2016, passed by the trial Court is under challenge, with a prayer for deciding the appeal in terms of the compromise. According to Mr. Gupta, learned counsel, the appeal is yet to be decided.

Learned counsel does not press this petition, but reserves his right to revive it in case the respondent-son retracts from the compromise.

Dismissed as withdrawn.
