for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The respondent-herein filed a suit for mandatory injunction for issuing the direction to the defendants to cancel mutation no.835 dated 21.05.1991 of village Ashrafgarh, Tehsil and District Jind and to correct the subsequent revenue record based upon this mutation.

In the pending suit, the parties entered into a settlement and it was agreed that the mutation no.835, dated 21.05.1991, has already been cancelled in view of the subsequent order passed by the Financial Commissioner on 08.01.1999. The subsequent entries will be consequently corrected.

In the execution petition, the court has directed the Assistant Collector (Tehsildar) to make an entry of sanction mutation no.1442 in every jamabandi within a period of 7 days. Mutation no.1442 has been sanctioned after cancelling the mutation no.835 dated 21.05.1991.

The learned counsel representing the State of Haryana contends that there was no direction to correct the entire revenue record which has already been entered. He submits that after sanctioning the mutation

No.1442 the subsequent record has already been corrected.

Keeping in view the aforesaid fact, the order passed by the Executing Court shall stand modified.

Disposed of accordingly.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
