...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: Mr.Kapil Khanna, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Tanvir Joshi, AAG, Punjab.

Mr.Amit Thakur, Advocate for respondent No.2.

[The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual court.]

SANT PARKASH, J.

Petitioner has approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.0203 dated 02.10.2021 registered under Sections 379/411 IPC at Police Station Division No.6, District Jalandhar as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise (P-2).

While issuing notice of motion on 08.02.2022, this Court directed both the parties to appear before the trial Court to record their statements with regard to genuineness of the compromise and the learned trial Court was directed to send a report to this Court in this regard. The report dated 28.02.2022 of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jalandhar, has been received, wherein it is stated that in pursuance of the order of this Court, the statements of the parties were recorded which indicates that the compromise is genuine, without any coercion or undue influence.

Short reply, filed on behalf of respondent No.1 in Court today, is taken on record.

Learned counsels appearing on behalf of both the parties admit that parties have settled their disputes.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of the Court settlement by way of compromise (Annexure P-2). The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, (2014) 6 SCC 466, the present petition is allowed. Resultantly, FIR No.0203 dated 02.10.2021 registered under Sections 379/411 IPC at Police Station Division No.6, District Jalandhar as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioner.
