

136 IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CR-1159-2020 (O&M)

Date of decision: 02.06.2022

Arjun Singh

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

..Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: None for the petitioner
 Mr. Harsh Vardhan, AAG, Haryana

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

Case has been called out twice. The learned counsel representing the petitioner did not come forward to press the present petition. With the able assistance of the learned counsel representing the State of Haryana, who appears pursuant to the service of the advance notice of the revision petition, this Court has gone through the paperbook. Admittedly, as per the judgement and decree, the pensionary benefits have already been paid to the petitioner. Consequently, the execution petition has been consigned to the record. The petitioner claims that he is entitled to payment of interest on the amount of the delayed payment of interest. There is no decree to that effect. The executing Court is required to execute the decree as such. Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
