CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Ashok Giri, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Harmeet Singh, Advocate, for
Mr. Vikram Anand, Advocate for the respondent.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The trial Court after recording the cogent reasons has set aside the ex parte decree while granting an opportunity to the defendants to contest the suit. Assailing its correctness the plaintiff has filed the present revision petition.

The dispute is with regard to the inheritance of the property left behind by Late Sh. Mangal Dass. The petitioner is sister-in-law, whereas the respondents are the daughters of late Sh. Mangal Dass. It has been found by the trial Court that in a previous suit, the address of the respondents was H.No.481, Gandhi Camp, Ward No.5, Jalandhar, whereas in the subsequent suit, the address given by the respondents was House No.156, Dhobian Wali Gali, Qadi Hatti, Khazoori Gate, Batala. There was no personal service of notice on the respondents. The court proceeded on the basis of service through the local proclamation. The view taken by the trial Court is plausible. This Court has examined the documents. The plaintiff has failed to prove that the defendants were personally served or they were having knowledge of the pendency of the suit.

Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
