CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: None for the petitioners.

Mr. Tanvir Joshi, AAG, Punjab.

[The aforesaid presence is being recorded through video conferencing since the proceedings are being conducted in virtual court.]

SANT PARKASH, J.

The petitioners have approached this Court seeking protection of their life and liberty on the averments that the petitioners performed marriage on 23.01.2020 as per Sikh rites and ceremonies against the wishes of respondents No.4 to 7 and the petitioners are apprehending threat to their life and liberty at their instance.

While issuing notice of motion on 28.01.2020, respondent No. 2-Senior Superintendent of Police, Sangrur was directed to see that no harm was caused to the life and liberty of the petitioners.

In response to the above-said order dated 28.01.2020, status report has been filed, wherein it has been mentioned that statements of petitioners as well as statement of father of petitioner No.1 were recorded to the effect that they have no apprehension of danger to their lives and liberty at the hands of anyone nor they need any police protection as both of them are living as husband and wife without any fear.

In view of the above, the present petition has become infructuous and the same is disposed of. However, liberty is granted to the petitioners to approach the Court again, if necessity arises.
