An application filed by the plaintiff for permission to add certain khasra numbers which were inadvertently left out has been allowed by the Court in a suit for decree of permanent injunction. Defendants no.2 and 3 claim that their personal property has also been included.

This is a matter of evidence. A formal amendment in the plaint has been permitted.

Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
