CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Sandeep Jasuja, Advocate, for the petitioner.
Mr. Sankalp Gehlawat, Advocate, for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed by the respondent-husband under Section 12 (1)(c) of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Hisar to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Gurugram.

On 4.2.2022, following order was passed by this Court :

“Applicant-wife has filed the transfer application for seeking transfer of the petition filed under Section 12(1) (c) of the Hindu Marriage Act, at the instance of respondent-husband, presently pending in the Family Court, Hisar, to the Court of competent jurisdiction at Gurugram.

It is now submitted by learned counsel for the applicant that the applicant is presently residing at her parental place in Gurugram, which is at a distance of about 175 kilometers from Hisar. Her father is also not having good health and is a heart patient. Even, FIR has been got registered by her against respondent and his family members, as such, it is difficult for her to pursue the litigation thrust upon her at the instance of her husband.

Notice of motion for 06.04.2022.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of matrimonial discord, the petitioner has lodged an FIR against the respondent, his relatives and his friend under Sections 498A, 406, 506, 377, 34 IPC. The petitioner is totally dependent on her father who is a heart patient and her mother has recently expired. It is further submitted that the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the petition filed by the respondent, as there is a distance of about 175 kms from Hisar to Gurugram.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Learned counsel has further relied upon N.C.V. Aishwarya Vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under: - “The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different

Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

Learned counsel for the respondent has though opposed the prayer of transfer of the petition.

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that the petitioner-wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments in Sumita Singh’s case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi’s case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya’s case (supra) passed by the Hon’ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The petition filed under Section 12 (1)(c) of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Hisar will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Gurugram.*
- 2. The District Judge, Gurugram will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- 3. The Family Court, Hisar is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Gurugram.*
- 4. The parties are directed to appear before the Family Court,*

Gurugram, within a period of 01 month from today.

Present petition is disposed of accordingly.
