ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

On 26.09.2022, the following order was passed:-

“On 22.10.2018, notice of motion was issued as the learned counsel representing the petitioners expressed willingness to file their written statement. However, as per the office report, on account of failure of the petitioners' counsel, the office was unable to issue notice to the respondents.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, last opportunity is granted to the petitioners to deposit the process fee, within next three working days, alongwith necessary copies of the revision petition, to enable the office to issue notice to the respondents for 17.11.2022, through their counsel Sh.Ajay Chawla, District Courts, Ludhiana.

It is made clear that if the learned counsel representing the petitioners fails to avail the last opportunity, the revision petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed for non-prosecution without any further reference to the Court.

To be listed in the urgent list.”

As per the office report, the learned counsel representing the petitioners did not take any step for completing the service of notice in the petition.

In terms of the order dated 26.09.2022, the revision petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
