Versus

State of Punjab and Ors.

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARINDER SINGH SIDHU

Present: Mr. Gulzar Mohd, Advocate for the petitioner.

HARINDER SINGH SIDHU, J

The present petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution seeking direction to respondent No.2 to provide protection to the lives and liberty of the petitioner at the hands of private respondent Nos.3 to 6.

Marriage of the petitioner with respondent No.3 was solemnized on 25.05.2014 and from the marriage, one female child, namely, Charvi Sharma was born on 30.11.2017. It is stated that the petitioner and respondent No.3 are now living separately from each other since 15.08.2021 and that the minor child is living with respondent No.3.

From the perusal of the petition, it appears that litigation qua matrimonial dispute is pending between the couple. Respondent No.3 filed a police complaint against the petitioner and his family members because of which the petitioner has been called to join police investigation. The petitioner has made certain allegations that he was manhandled, insulted and abused by family members of respondent No.3 when he went to the police station.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner apprehends his arrest in false cases at the instance of respondent No.3.

From the perusal of the pleadings raised in the petition, it appears that the allegations levelled by the petitioner are totally vague. It is not possible to issue any direction to the official respondents. However, in case the petitioner has any specific grievance, it would be open to him to file a complaint detailing the same, which would be looked into by the official respondents, in accordance with law.

Petition stands disposed of.
