....RESPONDENT

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL

Present: Mr.J.P.Jangu, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL, J (ORAL)

Case taken up through video conferencing.

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No.327 dated 27.10.2014, under Sections 307, 450, 147, 148, 149 IPC and Section 25 of the Arms Act, registered at Police Station City Rewari, District Rewari.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that it is alleged in the FIR that 03 co-accused, who were armed with pistols, had fired shots and the bullet hit the household articles and gate of the house. Although name of the petitioner has been mentioned as having come on a motorcycle but no specific allegation is there against him except that in the later part of the FIR, it is recorded that all the accused had fired upon the complainant. No fire arm injury was caused and the complainant is stated to have received an injury on his right knee after having slipped while running into his house. The petitioner had earlier been granted bail but he jumped bail and was arrested in another case. He is now in custody in the instant case after his re-arrest for 01 year and 01 month. The petitioner is involved in other cases but he is on bail in most of those cases.

Learned State counsel states that 34 out of 40 prosecution witnesses have been examined. She also contends that the petitioner is involved in several other cases and, therefore, he does not deserve the concession of regular bail.

Heard.

In view of the above especially when it is a case of no fire arm injury, the complainant had received injury on his knee due to a fall, the petitioner is in custody for over 01 year and 01 month, Covid 19 pandemic and the conclusion of the trial is likely to take some time, I deem it a fit case to grant the concession of regular bail to the petitioner.

Therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the petition is allowed. The petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned.

At the time of release of the petitioner, the SHO, Police Station City Rewari shall be informed and the petitioner shall furnish his mobile number to him and keep the location of his phone on. He shall appear before the Police Station City Rewari, Rewari on every alternate Monday till the conclusion of the trial.
