The dispute in the present case is with regard to the custody of the child between the grand mother and the mother of the child. Unfortunately, the child's father is already dead. An application filed by the mother under Order 7 Rule 11 of the CPC has been dismissed by the Court after accepting that the Court lacks territorial jurisdiction. This revision petition is pending for the last 6 years. Meanwhile, the petitioner (mother) and her child have settled in Australia.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts, the revision petition is rendered infructuous and is disposed of as such.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
