In pursuance of the said order, a report has been submitted by the Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate Naraingarh to the Registrar of this Court. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“Respected Sir,

With reference to order dated 6.2.2020 passed in CRM.M.No. 5387 of 2020 by Hon'ble High Court of Punjab & Haryana, Chandigarh, I have the honour to submit that statements of both the parties in case bearing FIR No. 398 dated 12.11.2019 u/s 323/324/34/341/506 IPC on the basis of compromise have been recorded. In the case 'State Vs Paramjit and others' complainant- Rajpal and accused Paramjit @ Kala @ Rajat son of Sh.Jagga Ram, Mohit son of Hem Raj and Gaurav @Sonu son of Gurmel have made a statement that their compromise is without any pressure or coercion in any manner. From the statements of witnesses, the compromise appears to be genuine and valid. As per the statement of SI Jai Gopal four accused are involved in the present case namely Kala @ Rajat son of Sh.Jagga Ram, Mohit son of Hem Raj, Rahul son of Ramesh and Sonu son of Gurmel. It is also submitted by SI Jai Gopal that none of the accused has been declared proclaimed offender/person in the present FIR. The report is submitted accordingly.

Thanking you,”

A perusal of the said report would show that it has been stated that the statements of the complainant as well as the petitioners have been recorded in the case and both have stated that the matter has been compromised and they have no objection in case the FIR is quashed. It is further stated that the statement of the complainant has been made voluntarily without any fear, coercion or pressure.

As per the above-reproduced report, there are 4 accused in the present case but the compromise has been effected with three accused i.e. the present petitioners and a prayer has been made by counsel for the petitioners as well as the counsel for respondent No. 2 that the FIR be quashed qua the present petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court titled as Jayrajsinh Digvijaysinh Rana Vs. State of Gujarat and another, reported as 2012 (12) SCC 401, to contend that where there is a partial compromise with some of the accused then also, the proceedings against the said petitioner/accused should be quashed as the same would not even remotely result in conviction of the said accused.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has also relied upon the judgment dated 04.07.2019 passed in CRM-M-16318-2018 titled as Dalip

Mandal and another Vs. State of U.T., Chandigarh and others in which case, the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court was pleased to allow the petition qua the petitioners only although, the matter had not been compromised between all the parties.

Learned counsel for respondent No. 2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bring out peace and amity between the parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file. After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioners and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. XXX---XXX”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No. 398 dated 12.11.2019 under Sections 341, 323, 324, 326 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 registered at Police Station Naraingarh, District Ambala (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of the compromise, are ordered to be quashed, qua the present petitioners.
