(Through Video Conferencing)

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Reply filed on behalf of the State; Be kept on record.

This Court, with the help of learned State counsel as well as learned counsel for respondent Nos.6 and 7, has interacted with the children of petitioner and respondent No.6, which interaction has also been witnessed by the petitioner herself along with her counsel.

Learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly submits that keeping in view the interaction with children, the petitioner does not press this petition any further and the same may kindly be disposed of as having been not pressed any further but with the liberty that the petitioner can avail any alternate remedy available to her, in case she needs custody of her minor children.

Ordered accordingly.

It is made clear that this Court has not opined anything with regard to grant of custody of the children to any of the parties as the same will be decided by the competent Court of law keeping in view the evidence which will be produced by the respective parties, in case the petitioner initiates any proceedings for grant of the custody of the minor children to her.
