VIKAS BAHL, J. (ORAL)

The present Criminal Writ Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for directing respondent Nos.1 and 2 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners while arguing the matter has submitted that since a complaint has been filed by respondent No.5, he would thus limit his prayer in the present petition to issue notice under Section 160 Cr.P.C. before calling the petitioners to the police station by the official respondents. It is submitted that there is no FIR registered against the petitioners. It is also submitted that there is money dispute between the petitioners and respondent No.5 and that there is a marriage of petitioner No.1, which is scheduled for 27.02.2022.

Notice of motion for respondents No.1 to 4 only.

On advance notice, Mr. Karanbir Singh, AAG, Punjab, appears and accepts notice on behalf of respondent Nos.1 to 4 and has fully prepared in the matter and has submitted that the State would proceed in accordance with law and in case there is no FIR registered against the petitioners, then before calling the petitioners to the police station, notice under Section 160 Cr.P.C. would be issued to them.

Keeping in view of the above, the present petition is disposed of with the direction to respondent Nos.1 to 4 to issue notice in writing under Section 160 Cr.P.C. in case the petitioners are required in any complaint filed by respondent No.5.

It is made clear that the present order would not restrain the official respondents to take action against the present petitioners in case they are involved in any FIR.
