CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. B.K. Bagri, Advocate, for the petitioner(s) in all the petitions.

Mr. Tanvir Singh Attariwala, Advocate, for respondents No 1 and 2 in CWP Nos.3621, 3655, 3824
and 3877 of 2022.

Ms. Sehaj Sandhawalia, Advocate, for respondents No. 1 and 2 in CWP No.3872 of 2022.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

By this common order, five writ petitions, the details of which have been given in the heading of the order, are being disposed of as all the petitions involve the same question of law on similar facts.

Reply on behalf of respondents No. 1 and 2 has been filed in the Court today and the same is taken on record.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that the relief being claimed in the present petitions has already been extended to the petitioner(s) as their daily wage service has been taken into account as a qualifying service for computing the pensionary benefits and the necessary computations have already been undertaken.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in CWP No.3655 of 2022, there is an additional claim for the grant of LTC, which will only be available to the petitioner in the year 2023, and the same will be considered at the relevant stage.

Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) submits that keeping in view the reply filed, no further grievance of the petitioner(s) survives in the present petitions but the petitioner(s) be given liberty that the in case, any action of the respondents causes prejudice to the petitioner(s), the petitioner(s) be given liberty to approach the respondents by filing appropriate representation.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in case any representation is filed, the same will be considered and disposed of expeditiously.

As the recalculation of the revised pensionary benefits have already been done by the respondents, the consequential benefits of the said order, be also released to the petitioner(s) within a period of two months of the receipt of copy of this order.

The present petitions are disposed of in above terms.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the file of other connected cases.
