Versus

GRAM PANCHAYAT RAM NAGAR CHUNNI WALA

..Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Baldev Singh Sodhi, Advocate for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

The decree holder assails the correctness of order passed by the Executing Court on 25.11.2021, while calling him upon to prove that the judgment and decree dated 06.07.2017, has been violated. He alleges that the judgment debtor, despite the opportunity, has failed to obey the decree.

The Executing Court has passed the order after appreciating the facts available on record. The petitioners claim that the Court has passed a decree for permanent injunction restraining the defendants from digging the land/remaining earth from the suit land. The judgment debtor is a Gram Panchayat.

Before any further order is passed, it is for the petitioners to prove that there is a violation of a decree.

Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
