CHANDIGARH

CRA-S-3345-SB-2013(O&M)

Date of decision:-6.5.2022

Ashok Kumar

...Appellant

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S.MADAAN

Present: Mr.S.S. Gill, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr.Anmol Singh Sandhu, AAG, Punjab.

H.S. MADAAN, J.

1. Appellant/accused Ashok Kumar, resident of village Bahman Majra, P.S. Ghagga, District Patiala was tried by Judge, Special Court, Patiala in case FIR No.94 dated 24.3.2011 for an offence under Section 15 of Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act'), Police Station Samana.

2. Briefly stated, facts of the case as per the prosecution version are that on 24.3.2011 at around 3:00 p.m. in the area of village Tulewal, the accused was found in possession of 25 kgs. of poppy husk. Two samples of 100 gms. each were drawn from the recovered contraband. The samples and bulk were converted into sealed parcels, which were then taken into possession by the police. The ruqa was sent to the police station, on the basis of which formal FIR was registered. Accused was arrested in this case.

3. During the investigation, the sample parcel was sent to the office of Chemical Examiner, Punjab and as per report received therefrom, it was found to be that of poppy husk. On completion of investigation, accused was sent up to face trial.

4. The trial ended in conviction of accused and in terms of judgment dated 6.9.2013, the accused/appellant was convicted in that case for an offence under Section 15 of NDPS Act and vide order of even date, he was sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for 2 ½ years and to pay a fine of ₹5,000/- and in default thereof to further undergo rigorous imprisonment for a period of six months.

5. Feeling aggrieved by the said judgment of conviction and order of sentence (supra), the accused/appellant Ashok Kumar had preferred the present appeal before this Court, which was put up on 4.10.2013 when it was Admitted for regular hearing and recovery of fine was ordered to be remain stayed during the pendency of the appeal. On an application having been filed by the appellant/accused for suspension of his sentence of imprisonment during the pendency of appeal, the remaining sentence of the appellant was ordered to be suspended during the pendency of appeal on 2.8.2016. Now the case has come up for regular hearing.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned State counsel besides going through the record.

7. At the very outset, learned counsel for the appellant states that he does not challenge the judgment on the point of conviction but wants to make submissions with regard to sentence.

8. Learned counsel appearing for the appellant has contended that the appellant/accused was of young age of 34-35 years at the time of recovery and more than 9 years have elapsed therefrom; he is married having two children; he is only earning member of the family and he is a first offender. He further contended that the appellant/accused has already undergone imprisonment of 9 months and 10 days and the recovery involved in this case amounts to non-commercial quantity, as such a lenient view in the matter be taken.

9. Whereas learned State counsel has contended that sentence awarded to the appellant is not on higher side and does not call for any reduction.

10. After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, I find that the prayer made by learned counsel for the appellant deserves to be accepted for various reasons. Firstly, the contraband recovered from the appellant/accused amounts to non-commercial quantity. Secondly, the appellant is not shown to have any past criminal record. Similarly, there is nothing on record to show that he has indulged in any criminal activity after suspension of his remaining sentence and releasing him on bail during the pendency of the appeal. Furthermore, he has already undergone actual sentence of 9 months and 10 days out of the substantive sentence awarded to him.

11. In that way, while upholding the judgment of conviction passed against the appellant/accused, the order of sentence is modified and his sentence is reduced to one already undergone by him in this case.

Whereas, the fine part is kept as intact. The appellant/accused may deposit the amount of fine in the trial Court within one month from today and in case of default of payment of fine, the appellant/accused shall be liable to be taken into custody and made to undergo sentence in default of payment of fine.

12. As such the appeal challenging the impugned judgment stand disposed of with above modification in sentence.

Since the main appeal stands disposed of with modification in sentence, the miscellaneous applications, if any stand disposed of accordingly.

Necessary intimation be sent to Chief Judicial Magistrate, Patiala for necessary compliance.
