DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.0018 dated 30.01.2018 registered under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A and 506 IPC at Women Police Station Jind, District Jind and all subsequent proceedings arising out of it on the basis of a written compromise dated 05.02.2021 (AnnexureP-2).

On 19.02.2021 this Court had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/Trial Court on 12.03.2021 for recording of their respective statements with regard to the compromise/settlement, who in turn was directed to submit a report along with the recorded statements with regard to the veracity of the compromise, if any, between the parties as also to apprise this Court if there is any other case pending against them; stage of the trial and his/their status of being proclaimed offender.

As directed, report dated 19.03.2021 from the Additional

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jind, has been received, as per which the parties had recorded their statements before the Trial Court in terms of the compromise arrived at between them and none of the accused has been declared a proclaimed person.

Learned State counsel has also raised no objection if the present petition is allowed.

In view of the above, continuation of the proceedings in pursuance of the afore-referred FIR which originates from a matrimonial dispute and the matter having been compromised, would be an abuse of the process of law and in terms of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab, (2014) 6 SCC 466, this Court deems it just and proper to allow the petition and resultantly quash the FIR No.0018 dated 30.01.2018 registered under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A and 506 IPC at Women Police Station Jind, District Jind and all proceedings arising therefrom, qua the petitioners.
