ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending in the Family Court, Mansa to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Camp Court Moonak, District Sangrur.

Vide order dated 22.02.2022, the following order was passed:-

“Petitioner (Sonia Rani) prays for transfer of the petition (HMA No.4 of 2022, titled ‘Raju Garg v. Sonia Rani’), under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, pending before the court of Principal Judge, Family Court, Mansa to a court of competent jurisdiction at Moonak (Sangrur).

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that for the respondent husband had an extra marital affair, and owing to the resistance shown by the petitioner, she was turned out of the matrimonial home. And since then, she along with her two minor children has been residing with her aged parents at Lehra Gaga (Sangrur). It is urged that the distance between Lehra Gaga and Mansa is approximately 60 km and, thus, besides the acute hardship she will have to suffer in commuting between the two stations, it would not be feasible for her to effectively pursue and defend her rights/interest in the proceedings pending at Mansa. Further, an injunction suit filed by the petitioner restraining the respondent from forcibly and unlawfully removing the two minor children from her custody is pending before the Additional Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Moonak (Sangrur).

Notice of motion, returnable by 16.03.2022.”

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the respondent/husband has filed the petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, as a counter-blast, before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Mansa.

Counsel for the petitioner has also argued that on account of a petition filed by the respondent/husband, the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case as there is a distance of about 60 Kms from Camp Court Moonak, District Sangrur to Mansa.

Counsel for the petitioner has further contended that the petitioner is having two minor children, who are living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case as she has to travel from Camp Court Moonak, District Sangrur to Mansa.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

As per the office report, the respondent has been served, however, there is no representation on his behalf.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that the petitioner/wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The petition filed under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, pending before the Family Court, Mansa will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Camp Court Moonak, District Sangrur.*
- 2. The District Judge, Sangrur, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- 3. The Family Court, Mansa is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Sangrur.*
- 4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Camp Court Moonak, District Sangrur, within a period of 01 month from today.*

Disposed of.
