CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Ajay Jain, Advocate, for the petitioner.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J (Oral)

The hearing of the case is being held through video conferencing on account of restricted functioning of the Courts.

The petitioner is a judgment debtor. A lease deed executed in favour of the petitioner by a religious institution has already been set aside. The petitioner objects to the execution of the decree on the ground that Class-I heirs of the mohtamim of the religious institutions have no locus-standi. It may be noted here that a religious institution is to perform its functions through the medium of a natural human being. The suit was filed through late Sh. Sultan, who is no more. His two sons, widow and daughter have been brought on record as the legal representatives. While deciding the application for bringing on record the legal representatives, the Court does not decide entitlement of the heirs. These legal representatives are brought on record only for the purpose of continuity of the proceedings while leaving the parties to get their right, title or interest decided in a separate proceedings.

In any case, the petitioner does not claim to be one of the legal representatives. The petitioner being judgment debtor is required to comply with the judgment and decree which has become final.

Hence, no ground to interfere.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, are also disposed of.
