VINOD S. BHARDWAJ. J. (ORAL)

Instant petition had been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of writ seeking directions to respondent No.2 to 5 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner from the hands of respondent Nos.6 to 13.

Pursuant to the order dated 28.02.2022, Charu has been brought before the Court today. When the case was called for hearing Charu had sought some time to deliberate and discuss certain issues with her family members as well as her next friend Priyvar. The parties were allowed time to interact and communicate amongst themselves.

On resumed hearing, Charu has stated that she intends to go with her parents. Her mother and father are also present in Court and have been identified by Sh. Deepender Singh, Advocate. They have also made a statement that they shall not extend any threat to the next friend namely Priyvar.

Statement is accepted.

Since the petition had been filed by the next friend of the minor girl and she having expressed her willingness to go with her parents, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the instant petition.

The instant petition is dismissed as not pressed.

The minor girl is thus at liberty to go from the Court with her parents. A copy of this order be supplied to Ms. Vasundhara Dalal Anand, APP UT Chandigarh for onward formalities with the Children's Home-Snehalaya for Girls, Sector 15 Chandigarh.
