ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed under Section 19 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, titled as “Amarjit Kaur and others vs Amrik Singh”, pending in the Additional Civil Judge (Sr. Division), Camp Court Zira, District Ferozepur to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Camp Court Jagraon, District Ludhiana.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the petitioner along with her two minor children have filed the aforesaid petition against her father-in-law Amrik Singh, after the death of her husband Nasib Singh, for grant of maintenance and on coming to know about the pendency of the case, the petitioner was shunted out of her matrimonial home and now, she is residing in Jagraon, District Ludhiana, along with her minor children. It is also submitted that the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case as there is a distance of about 125 Kms from Camp Court Jagraon, District

Ludhiana to Camp Court Zira, District Ferozepur.

Counsel for the petitioner has further contended that the petitioner is having 02 minor children, who are living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case as she has to travel from Jagraon, District Ludhiana to Zira, District Ferozepur.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

As per the office report, the respondent has been served, however, there is no representation on his behalf.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that the petitioner will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The petition filed under Section 19 of the Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, pending before the Additional Civil* Judge (Sr. Division), Camp Court Zira, District Ferozepur will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Camp Court Jagraon, District Ludhiana.

- 2. The District Judge, Ludhiana, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- 3. The Additional Civil Judge (Sr. Division), Camp Court Zira, District Ferozepur is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Ludhiana.*
- 4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Camp Court Jagraon, District Ludhiana, within a period of 01 month from today.*
