Vs.

Sandeep Kumar

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Saurabh Gautam, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. A.S. Gill, Advocate for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of Civil Suit No.18/2021 dated 08.01.2021 filed by the respondent-husband, pending before the Civil judge (Sr. Divn.), Hoshiarpur to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Ludhiana.

This petition is pending since 2021 and on 09.03.2021, proceedings before the trial Court were stayed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that the respondent-husband filed a suit for declaration that adoption deed dated 01.04.2015, vide which minor child was adopted by the petitioner-wife as well as respondent-husband Sandeep Kaur. It is further submitted that on account of matrimonial discord, now the suit has been filed by the respondent-husband and the petitioner and minor child have filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C., which is pending before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Ludhiana. It is further submitted that the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the suit filed by the respondent, as there is a distance of about 76 kms from Ludhiana to Hoshiarpur.

Learned counsel has further contended that the petitioner is having a minor child, who is living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case, as she has to travel from Ludhiana to Hoshiarpur.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Learned counsel has further relied upon N.C.V. Aishwarya Vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court held as under: - “The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife’s convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

Learned counsel for the respondent has filed the reply and contested this petition with regard to jurisdiction of the Court, though it is not disputed that even twin children born out of the present wedlock, are residing with the petitioner-wife and she has to take care of three minor children.

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, considering the fact that the petitioner-wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments in Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The Civil Suit No.18/2021 dated 08.01.2021 filed by the respondent-husband, pending before the Civil judge (Sr. Divn.), Hoshiarpur will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Ludhiana.*
- 2. The District Judge, Ludhiana will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*

3. The Civil judge (Sr. Divn.), Hoshiarpur is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Ludhiana.
4. The parties are directed to appear before the Family Court, Ludhiana within a period of 01 month from today.
5. The Court concerned, where the litigations between the parties are pending, will accommodate them with one date in one calender month.

Present petition is disposed of accordingly.
