

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

SR. No.247

CRM-M-7749-2020

Date of Decision:29.03.2022

Ranbir and others

...Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana and another

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present: Mr. Parminder Singh, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. Manish Dadwal, AAG, Haryana.

Mr. Sukhdeep Singh, Advocate for respondent No.2.

SANT PARKASH, J.

Petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No.56 dated 31.01.2016 registered under Sections 323/34/427/452/506 IPC at Police Station Taraori, District Karnal as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise (P-2).

While issuing notice of motion on 24.02.2020, this Court directed both the parties to appear before the trial Court to record their statements with regard to genuineness of the compromise and the learned trial Court was directed to send a report to this Court in this regard. The report dated 13.03.2020 of Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Karnal, has been received, wherein it is stated that in pursuance of the order of this Court, the statements of the four accused/petitioners as well as complainant were recorded which indicate that the compromise is genuine, without any coercion or undue influence.

Learned counsels appearing on behalf of both the parties admit that parties have settled their disputes.

Learned counsel for the State points out that though there are total five accused in the present FIR but one of the accused was kept in column No.2 of the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. and he was not summoned.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of the Court settlement by way of compromise (Annexure P-2). The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, (2014) 6 SCC 466, the present petition is allowed. Resultantly, FIR No.56 dated 31.01.2016 registered under Sections 323/34/427/452/506 IPC at Police Station Taraori, District Karnal as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioners.
