Manoj Bajaj, J. (Oral)

Petitioner Rajender @ Golu (convict) has filed this writ petition under Article 226 Constitution of India read with Section 3 Sub Sections (1)(a) and (2)(b) Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1988 for issuance of directions to the respondents to release him on parole for a period of four weeks to enable him to attend and perform the Tehravi/Bhog ceremony of this father, which is scheduled for 11.03.2022.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that on the day of his conviction and order of sentence passed by trial Court in case FIR No.466 dated 05.05.2018, registered under Sections 20-61-85 NDPS Act, at Police Station City Thanesar, he also lost his father and the bhog ceremony is to be held on 11.03.2022. He further submits that the appeal against the judgment of conviction dated 23.02.2022 is in the process of filing, therefore, the petitioner has approached this Court by way of writ petition under Article 226 Constitution of India seeking parole for a period of four weeks.

Pursuant to the notice of motion order, learned State counsel has filed the short reply by way of affidavit of Som Nath Jagat, Superintendent of Prison, District Prison, Kurukshetra along with verification report filed by SHO, Police Station Krishna Gate, District Kurukshetra (Annexure R-1/T), wherein it is mentioned that indeed the bhog ceremony of petitioner's father is scheduled to take place on 11.03.2022.

Considering the grounds raised for parole, this court finds that the limited prayer made by petitioner deserves acceptance. Resultantly, the petition is allowed and it is ordered that the petitioner be released on parole for a period of two weeks, subject to his furnishing the requisite bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/CJM/Duty Magistrate concerned. The petitioner is directed to surrender himself before the concerned Jail Authorities on 25.03.2022 before 05.00 p.m.
