Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the civil suit No. 1262 of 2018, titled as Kamlesh Dhiman vs. Bureau in Chief and others, pending before the Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Kurukshetra to the competent Court of jurisdiction at SAS Nagar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner relies upon order dated 09.08.2022 passed in TA-267-2020, vide which another Civil Suit No. 1249 of 2018, titled as Kamlesh Dhiman vs. Nithin Dhiman and others, was transferred from Kurukshetra to the competent court of jurisdiction at SAS Nagar. The operative part of the order reads as under:

“Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the petitioner has filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. at SAS Nagar, which is pending. It is further submitted that vide order dated 27.07.2022 passed in TA-265-2020, another civil suit pending before the parties has already been transferred from Kurukshetra to SAS Nagar.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further relied upon 2022 Live Law (SC) 627 N.C.V. Aishwarya vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, wherein Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as under:

“9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that he has no objection if the present petition is allowed and the aforesaid civil suit is transferred to SAS Nagar.

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the petitioner, considering the fact that if the aforesaid petition is not transferred, the petitioner-wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and also in view of the ratio of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sumita Singh's case (supra) and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra), this Court deems it appropriate to allow the present petition, with the following directions:-

(i) The aforesaid civil suit, pending before the Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Kurukshetra will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at SAS Nagar.

(ii) The District Judge, SAS Nagar will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.

(iii) The Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Kurukshetra is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, SAS Nagar.

(iv) The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court at SAS Nagar within a period of 01 month from today.

As per office report, respondent No. 1 is served, however, there is no representation on his behalf.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner and considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances, the present petition is allowed with the following directions:-

(i) The aforesaid civil suit, pending before the Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Kurukshetra will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at SAS Nagar.

(ii) The District Judge, SAS Nagar will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.

(iii) The Civil Judge (Sr. Divn.), Kurukshetra is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, SAS Nagar.

(iv) The parties are directed to appear before the trial

Court at SAS Nagar within a period of 01 month from today.

(v) The Courts concerned, where the cases are pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in a calendar month.
