On 15.03.2022, this Court had passed the following order:-

“This is a petition filed under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.47 dated 07.03.2021 registered under Sections 324 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Majitha, District Amritsar Rural (Annexure P-1) (later added Section 326) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise.

In pursuance of the abovesaid order, a report has been submitted by the Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Amritsar. The relevant portion of the said report is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“I am satisfied that compromise is genuine and has been effected between the parties voluntarily, without any coercion or undue influence. It is further submitted that as per the statement of investigating officer ASI Karam Singh No.847/ASR(Rural), Police Station Majitha, Amritsar, there are four accused involved in the present case namely Sonu, Kawal @ Karandeep, Asha Rani and Aman Kumari. The accused have never been declared as proclaimed offender in the present case. The accused are not involved in any other case. There is only one complainant in the present case namely Rakesh Kumar.

The report is being submitted please.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully

Judicial Magistrate Ist Class,

Amritsar,

UID No.PB0380”

A perusal of the said report would show that the compromise has been found to be genuine, without any pressure or undue influence. It has been stated that the statements of the complainant as well as the accused have been recorded in the case and both have stated that the matter has been compromised and they have no objection in case the FIR is quashed. It is further stated that the statement of the complainant has been made voluntarily without any fear, coercion or pressure.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners were not declared proclaimed offender in the present case and there are no other cases pending against the petitioners. Learned counsel for the State, as per instructions has stated that these facts are correct.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 has again reiterated that the matter has been settled and the said compromise is in the interest of all the persons and would help in bringing out peace and amity between the two parties.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file. After perusing the report submitted by the trial Court, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioner and the complainant. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in “Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab”, reported as 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble the Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, reported as 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced hereinbelow:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court. XXX---XXX”

In view of what has been discussed hereinabove, the petition is allowed and FIR No.47 dated 07.03.2021 registered under Sections 324 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Majitha, District Amritsar Rural (Annexure P-1) (later on added Section 326) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise, are ordered to be quashed, qua the petitioners.

All the pending miscellaneous applications, if any, stand disposed of in view of the abovesaid judgment.
