

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

RSA-2402-1992

Date of decision: 29.04.2022

Shiv Ram and others

... Appellants

Versus

Ram Asra and another

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI, JUDGE

Present: Mr. Munish Gupta, Advocate for the appellants.

ARUN PALLI, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that with efflux of time and certain developments that have taken place since admission of the appeal on 01.12.1992, the matter appears to have been rendered infructuous and be disposed of as such. However, he submits that even though none of the appellants has contacted his office for the past several years, but still to safeguard their interest they be granted liberty to move an appropriate application for revival of this appeal just in case any cause of action still subsists/survives.

In the wake of the above, the appeal is disposed of having been rendered infructuous with the liberty prayed for.

(Arun Palli)
Judge

29.04.2022

Rajan

Whether speaking / reasoned:

YES

Whether Reportable:

NO