The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for issuance of direction to respondent No.2 to direct respondent Nos.3 and 4 not to harass the petitioners without any cogent cause or reasons.

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that petitioner No.1 is wife of petitioner No.2. Brother of petitioner No.1 Daljinder Singh is involved in number of cases and therefore, petitioner No.1 had expelled him from her house and had severed her relationship with him long time ago because he was involved in criminal activities. Petitioner

No.2 is husband of petitioner no.1 whereas petitioner Nos.3 and 4 are the old aged parents of petitioner No.2. He submitted that because of involvement of brother of petitioner No.1 in criminal activities, the police had been constantly raiding the house of the petitioner and even torturing them. He submitted that the petitioners are not aware about the whereabouts of aforesaid Daljinder Singh and therefore, police cannot exceed its powers in forcing the petitioners to disclose anything once they have already severed their relationship with aforesaid Daljinder Singh.

He specifically submitted that all the four petitioners are not required in any case and no further raid would be conducted at the house of the petitioners without following the due procedure and advance notice would be given to the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that in view of the statement made by the learned State counsel on instructions
