Instant petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India was for issuance of directions to the respondents to extend the emergency parole period that had already been granted to the petitioner on the ground that he has to aid in the treatment of his father who is suffering from a kidney ailment.

During the course of hearing today, counsel for the petitioner makes a categorical assertion that the petitioner has already surrendered before the jail authorities on 12.04.2022.

As such, counsel does not press the instant petition.
