CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANT PARKASH

Present : Mr. Parminder Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

SANT PARKASH, J. (ORAL)

Petitioners have approached this Court by way of instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure invoking its inherent jurisdiction for quashing of FIR No. 207 dated 06.07.2017 registered under Sections 148, 149, 323, 324 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'the IPC') registered at Police Station Taraori, District Karnal as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 25.01.2021 (Annexure P-2).

Vide order dated 08.04.2021, the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court to record their statements with regard to the compromise and send a report to this Court but the parties could not appear on the said date on account of the then prevailing conditions of Covid-19 pandemic. Thereafter, vide order dated 20.12.2021, the parties were again directed to appear before the trial Court for the said purpose. The report dated 02.02.2022 of learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Karnal has been received, wherein it is stated that in pursuance of the order of this Court, the statements of the parties were recorded which indicates that the compromise is genuine, without any coercion or undue influence.

Learned counsels appearing on behalf of both the parties admit that parties have settled their disputes.

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties and going through record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case for exercising the inherent jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C., so as to secure the ends of justice because the parties have arrived at an out of the Court settlement by way of compromise (Annexure P-2). The compromise is without any pressure and a genuine one. In such a situation, continuation of the prosecution would result in sheer abuse of process of law.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled between the parties and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, (2014) 6 SCC 466, the present petition is allowed. Resultantly, FIR No. 207 dated 06.07.2017 registered under Sections 148, 149, 323, 324 and 506 of the IPC registered at Police Station Taraori, District Karnal, as well as the consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua the petitioners.
