....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN

Present: Mr. Mohit Sadana, Advocate

Ms. Amarinder Verma, Advocate for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition No.GW/7/2022 titled as "Gurpreet Singh vs Taranpreet Kaur" filed under the Guardians & Wards Act, pending in the Family Court, Sirsa to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Sangrur.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the petitioner has filed a complaint before the Senior Superintendent of Police and a petition/complaint under the Domestic Violence Act at Sangrur.

Counsel for the petitioner has further submitted that the respondent/husband has filed the petition under the Guardians & Wards Act, as a counter-blast, before the Principal Judge, Family Court, Sirsa.

Counsel for the petitioner has also argued that on account of a petition filed by the respondent/husband, the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case as there is a distance of about 127 Kms from Sangrur to Sirsa.

Counsel for the petitioner has further contended that the petitioner is having two minor children, who are living in her care and custody and she is facing difficulty to defend the case as she has to travel from Sangrur to Sirsa. Even other wise, the jurisdiction under Section 9 of the Guardians & Wards Act will be at a place where the minor children are residing.

Counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the judgments “Sumita Singh vs Kumar Sanjay”, 2002 SC 396 and “Rajani Kishor Pardeshi vs Kishor Babulal Pardeshi”, 2005(12) SCC 2344, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed that while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon the judgment “N.C.V. Aishwarya vs A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha,” 2022 Live Law (SC) 627, wherein the Hon’ble Supreme Court has observed as under:-

9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider the family condition of the wife, the custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important the convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

Counsel for the respondent has, however, not disputed the factual position but opposed the submissions made by counsel for the petitioner.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, considering the fact that the petitioner/wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and in view of the judgments i.e. Sumita Singh's case (supra), Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra) and N.C.V. Aishwarya's case (supra) passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, this Court deem it appropriate to allow the present petition, subject to the following conditions:-

- 1. The petition No.GW/7/2022 titled as "Gurpreet Singh vs Taranpreet Kaur" filed under the Guardians & Wards Act, pending before the Family Court, Sirsa will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Sangrur.*
- 2. The District Judge, Sangrur, will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- 3. The Family Court, Sirsa is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Sangrur.*
- 4. The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court, Sangrur, within a period of 01 month from today.*
- 5. The Court concerned, where the litigation pending between the parties, will accommodate them with one date in one calendar month.*

Disposed of.
