CWP-7236-2022

Date of Decision : April 06, 2022

Chaman Lal

.. Petitioner

Versus

Punjab State Power Corporation Limited and another

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Rimple Saini, Advocate, for the petitioner.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Present petition has been filed challenging the order by which the claim of the petitioner for granting the benefit of the daily/work charge service has not been accepted by the respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the record is available with the respondents whereas the same is being demanded from an employee, which is only to harass the employee so as to deny the employee the benefits of the said service.

There is no document which has been placed on record of this petition to prima facie show that the petitioner discharged the duties for the period in question on daily/work charge. Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though no such document is on the record as of now, but he will try to find out the same and then place on record.

In that case, by the impugned order, the respondents have already given liberty to the petitioner to produce the record of his service for which the benefit is being claimed so that appropriate order could be passed on the prayer of the petitioner.

It is directed that in case, the petitioner produce any document with regard to the service which he had rendered on daily/work charge basis prior to the regularization of his services, the respondents will consider the documents and then pass appropriate orders on the prayer of the petitioner keeping in view the liberty given to the petitioner in the impugned order itself.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present petition may kindly be allowed to be withdrawn at this stage with liberty to approach the respondents to produce the relevant documents.

Ordered accordingly.
