Present:- Mr. Sahil Vashishat, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sherry K. Singla, Advocate for the respondent.

ARVIND SINGH SANGWAN, J. (Oral)

Prayer in this petition is for transfer of the petition filed by the respondent-husband under Section 25 read with Section 10 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, titled as Davinder Singh & Anr. vs. Shalu Rani & Anr., pending before the Family Court, Rupnagar to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Fatehgarh Sahib.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has argued that on account of a matrimonial discord, the petitioner has filed a civil suit under Order 33 Rule 1 CPC for maintenance and permanent injunction against the respondents at Fatehgarh Sahib, which is pending. It is further submitted that as a counter-blast to the aforesaid case, the respondent-husband has filed the present petition under Section 25 read with Section 10 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890 at Rupnagar in order to harass the petitioner. It is further submitted that the petitioner is facing great difficulty in prosecuting the said case, as there is a distance of about 45 Kms between the aforesaid two places.

Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner is having two children, who are living in her care and custody, therefore, it is very difficult for her to defend the said case at Rupnagar.

Learned counsel has relied upon the judgments Sumita Singh Vs. Kumar Sanjay, 2002 SC 396 and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi Vs. Kishor Babulal Pardeshi, 2005(12) SCC 237, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court observed that “while deciding the transfer application, the Courts are required to give more weightage and consideration to the convenience of the female litigants and transfer of legal proceedings from one Court to another should ordinarily be allowed, taking into consideration their convenience and the Courts should desist from putting female litigants under undue hardships.”

Learned counsel for the petitioner has further relied upon 2022 Live Law (SC) 627 N.C.V. Aishwarya vs. A.S. Saravana Karthik Sha, wherein Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as under:

“9. The cardinal principle for exercise of power under Section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure is that the ends of justice should demand the transfer of the suit, appeal or other proceeding. In matrimonial matters, wherever Courts are called upon to consider the plea of transfer, the Courts have to take into consideration the economic soundness of both the parties, the social strata of the spouses and their behavioural pattern, their standard of life prior to the marriage and subsequent thereto and the circumstances of both the parties in eking out their livelihood and under whose protective umbrella they are seeking their sustenance to life. Given the prevailing socioeconomic paradigm in the Indian society, generally, it is the wife's convenience which must be looked at while considering transfer.

10. Further, when two or more proceedings are pending in different Courts between the same parties which raise common question of fact and law, and when the decisions in the cases are interdependent, it is desirable that they should be tried together by the same Judge so as to avoid multiplicity in trial of the same issues and conflict of decisions.”

Learned counsel for the respondent-husband has no objection if the said case is transferred to Fatehgarh Sahib.

It is well settled that while considering the transfer of a matrimonial dispute/case at the instance of the wife, the Court is to consider family condition of the wife, custody of the minor child, economic condition of the wife, her physical health and earning capacity of the husband and most important, convenience of the wife i.e. she cannot travel alone without assistance of a male member of her family, connectivity of the place to and fro from her place of residence as well as bearing of the litigation charges and travelling expenses.

After hearing the counsel for the parties, considering the fact that if the aforesaid petition is not transferred, the petitioner-wife will have to bear the litigation expenses and transportation expenses and also in view of the ratio of law laid down by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Sumita Singh's case (supra) and Rajani Kishor Pardeshi's case (supra), this Court deems it appropriate to allow the present petition, with the following directions:-

- (i) The petition filed by the respondent-husband under Section 25 read with Section 10 of the Guardians and Wards Act, 1890, pending at Family Court, Rupnagar will be transferred to the competent Court of jurisdiction at Fatehgarh Sahib.

- (ii) The District Judge, Fatehgarh Sahib will assign the said petition to the competent Court of jurisdiction.*
- (iii) The Family Court at Rupnagar is directed to transfer all the record pertaining to the aforesaid case to District Judge, Fatehgarh Sahib.*
- (iv) The parties are directed to appear before the trial Court at Fatehgarh Sahib within a period of 01 month from today.*
