..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK SIBAL

Present: Mr.Harsh Manocha, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Ms.Sheenu Sura, DAG, Haryana.

Ms.Sharmila Sharma, Advocate, for respondent No.2.

DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (ORAL)

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.649 dated 10.12.2014 registered under Sections 406, 498-A, 323, 494 and 506 IPC at Police Station Gharaunda, District Karnal, alongwith all consequential proceedings.

At the outset, learned counsel for respondent No.2/complainant submits that she has express instructions from her client that the impugned FIR had been lodged at her instance due to a matrimonial dispute between herself and her husband but since in the last about over five years when the present matter remained pending in this Court, she sought and got divorce from her husband and has also remarried. In these circumstances she would like to start her new life afresh and therefore would have no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

After considering the afore statement made on behalf of respondent No.2/complainant, this Court is of the opinion that the ends of justice would be served if the present FIR, which arises out of a matrimonial dispute, is quashed especially when even in the initial complaint filed by respondent No.2 she had specifically stated before the Magistrate that she had no grievance against the present petitioners.

In the light of the above, the present petition is allowed. Resultantly, FIR No.649 dated 10.12.2014 registered under Sections 406, 498-A, 323, 494 and 506 IPC at Police Station Gharaunda, District Karnal and all proceedings arising therefrom qua the petitioners are quashed.
