

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(245)

CRM-M-17248-2021

Date of Decision : March 02, 2022

Madan Mohan alias Sheru

.. Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

.. Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Rajat Dogra, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Kirat Singh Sidhu, Deputy Advocate General, Punjab.

Ms. G.S. Mann, Advocate, for respondent No.2.

HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI J. (ORAL)

Present petition has been filed for quashing of the FIR on the basis of the compromise between the parties and this Court directed the parties to appear before the trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate for getting their statements recorded to substantiate the said compromise. As per the report, which has been received from the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ferozepur dated 25.02.2022 though the petitioner was present for recording his statement but the respondent did not appear.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner prays that he be allowed to withdraw this petition, at this stage with liberty to file a fresh one in case, the parties are able to settle their dispute by way of compromise, if permissible under law and then approach this Court again for quashing of the same.

Ordered accordingly.

March 02, 2022

harsha

(HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI)
JUDGE

Whether speaking/reasoned : Yes

Whether reportable : No