ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

Seeking release of the alleged detainees, the petitioner has come up before this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

Learned counsel for the State, on instructions, submits that statement of the alleged detainee no.1, who is stated to be wife of the petitioner, was recorded in the presence of Sarpanch of the village and the statement of said Sarpanch was also recorded, from which it transpired that she is staying there along with her parents at her own will.

Given above, since the alleged detainee, who is an adult, has explicitly stated that she is comfortably living at the place of her own choice, this Court feels that nothing survives in this petition.

Consequently, the present writ petition is disposed of.

All pending applications, if any, stand disposed.
