ANOOP CHITKARA J. (ORAL)

The grievance of the complainant (petitioner herein) is that by taking advantage of the bail the accused tried to grab the possession of the land.

Learned counsel for the accused has strongly opposed the such contention by submitting that the accused is already in possession of the land.

Be that as it may, to maintain peace and harmony, the accused shall stay away at a distance of 100 meters from the property which is in ownership of the complainant (petitioner herein).

Petition is partly allowed with the aforesaid modifications.
