

CWP No. 9023 of 1997

Date of Decision: 23.08.2022

Balwan Singh and another

.....Petitioners

Vs.

State of Haryana and others

.....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN MONGA

Present: Mr. I.D. Singla, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. R.D.Sharma, D.A.G., Haryana.

ARUN MONGA, J. (ORAL)

On a query put by this court, learned counsel for the petitioners fairly states that he has not been in touch with the petitioner and since the long interregnum caused during the pendency of the present writ petition, i.e. almost 25 years, though an attempt was made to contact the petitioner by writing letters but the same has been an exercise in futility.

In the premise, no useful purpose will be served, if fresh notice is issued to the petitioners since it appears that the address of the petitioner may have changed, that is why they have not responded to the learned counsel's letters as well.

Be that as it may, even otherwise it may have so happened that the long pendency has left the petitioners disappointed, exhausted and lose interest in pursuing the petition.

In view of the above, the petition is dismissed but with liberty to the petitioners in case they contact the learned counsel's office to file an appropriate application if anything survives.
