Sr. No.125

Civil Writ Petition No.8664 of 2022

Date of Decision : April 27, 2022

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDHIR MITTAL

Present: Mr. Yogesh Goel, Advocate with
Mr. Sanjeev Komak, Advocate, for the petitioner.

SUDHIR MITTAL, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is aggrieved because notice dated 16.03.2022 under the Haryana Public Premises and Land (Eviction and Rent Recovery) Act, 1972 has been received by him.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that initially an eviction petition under the said Act was filed in the year 2011 and eviction was ordered. In appeal filed by the petitioner, the said order was set aside and the matter was remanded for a fresh decision. After remand, again an order of eviction was passed which was set aside in appeal filed by the petitioner. The Appellate Order became final inter-parties as no further appeal/revision was filed. Thereafter, the instant notice dated 16.03.2022 has been received which is patently mala fide and not maintainable.

Only notice of eviction petition has been received by the petitioner and he is entitled to raise all objections before the concerned authority i.e. respondent No.2. I see no reason to entertain the writ petition at this stage.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to take all appropriate pleas before the concerned authority.

Dismissed as withdrawn with the aforementioned liberty.
