DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

The present petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No.18 dated 31.03.2017 registered under Sections 494, 498-A and 120-B IPC at Women Police Station, Panchkula, District Panchkula and all subsequent proceedings arising out of it on the basis of a written compromise dated 18.01.2022 (Annexure P-2).

On 29.04.2022 this Court had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqa Magistrate/Trial Court on 13.05.2022 for recording of their respective statements with regard to the compromise/settlement, who in turn was directed to submit a report along with the recorded statements with regard to the veracity of the compromise, if any, between the parties as also to apprise this Court if there is any other case pending against the accused and his/their status of being proclaimed offender.

As directed, report dated 07.06.2022 from the Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Panchkula, has been received, as per which the parties had recorded their statements before the Trial Court in terms of the compromise arrived at between them and the petitioner has never been declared a proclaimed offender.

Learned State counsel has also raised no objection if the present petition is allowed.

In view of the above, continuation of the proceedings in pursuance of the afore-referred FIR which originates from a matrimonial dispute and the matter having been compromised, would be an abuse of the process of law and in terms of the law laid down by the Supreme Court in Narinder Singh vs. State of Punjab, (2014) 6 SCC 466, this Court deems it just and proper to allow the petition and resultantly quash the FIR No.18 dated 31.03.2017 registered under Sections 494, 498-A and 120-B IPC at Women Police Station, Panchkula, District Panchkula and all proceedings arising therefrom, qua the petitioner.
