Learned DAG, Punjab, on instructions from Mr.Kapil Kumar, Law Officer in the Office of General Manager, Punjab Roadways, Depot-1, Jalandhar states that respondent-Tarsem Singh has submitted an affidavit in the department concerned to the effect that he does not want to pursue the matter of increment of which he was deprived of and he has received all the benefits from the department. She further states that the respondent also could not come present because of his illness.

Mr.Sunny Singla, Advocate, who has come present as proxy for Mr.R.S.Sharma, Advocate (since stated to have abandoned practice) states that he could not contact the respondent, in spite of his best efforts.

In these circumstances, without prejudice to either of the parties, the matter is consigned to the record room with liberty to the party/parties concerned to get it revived, if so desire.
