

RSA-2821-1998

UMED SINGH V/S HOUSING BOARD HARYANA

Present:- Mr. Varun Parkash, Advocate for
Mr. Chetan Slathia, Advocate along with
Mr. Umed Singh, appellant in person.

Mr. Barjesh, Advocate for
Mr. Rajesh Gaur, Advocate for the respondent.

Mr. Varun Parkash, Advocate has put in appearance on behalf of the appellant and filed Vakalatnama of Mr. Chetan Slathia, Advocate.

The present appeal has been filed by the plaintiff-appellant. The facts are that the plaintiff-appellant had filed the suit for permanent injunction seeking to restrain the defendant (Housing Board Haryana) from dispossessing him from House No.100, MIG, House Board Colony, Sirsa Road, Hisar. The suit was decreed on 15.12.1997 by Civil Judge (Jr. Division), Hisar. The appeal preferred by Housing Board against the said judgment and decree dated 15.12.1997, was allowed on 31.07.1998 and the suit was dismissed.

The plaintiff-appellant has filed the present appeal. The same has been referred to this Forum for settlement.

The plaintiff-appellant-Umed Singh has stated that the respondent-Housing Board, Haryana has already executed a conveyance deed (Copy placed on record) in his favour on 04.02.2002 in relation to property No.100 MIG, HBC Phase III, Sirsa Road, Hisar. In view of this, the present appeal be dismissed as infructuous. However, in case of any action by the respondent-Housing Board, the liberty be given to him to revive this appeal.

In view of the said facts and statement given by the plaintiff-appellant, this appeal is dismissed as infructuous with aforesaid liberty.

(J.C. Verma)
President

(Arvind Kumar)
Member

31.08.2022
Atul/vipin