Date of Decision: 11.05.2022

Bal Krishan Garg ...Petitioner

Versus

Arora Iron and Steel Rolling Mills Pvt. Ltd. ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANOOP CHITKARA

Present: Ms. Kriti Sharma Avasthi, Advocate, for the petitioner.

ANOOP CHITKARA, J.

Complaint No.	Section	Title of complaint
CRM-45 of 2017 (CM for revival of complaint	138 of NI Act	Arora Iron and Steel Rolling Mills Pvt. Ltd. Vs. M/s Swati Cast Forge Pvt. Ltd.

1. Challenging the order of proclamation on being declared a proclaimed offender, the petitioner has come up before this court under section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Cr.P.C).
2. The accused could not be served through the ordinary process, including summons, bailable warrants, and even non-bailable warrants. The concerned court finally proceeded against the petitioner under section 82 of Cr.P.C and declared the petitioner a proclaimed offender vide order dated 30 Oct 2019, passed by Ld. JMIC, Ludhiana, Punjab.
3. After arguing for considerable time, Id. counsel for the petitioner submits that the criminal justice system must not hamper and suffer because of the petitioner. Thus, would confine the prayers in the petition to grant of bail on the petitioner’s surrendering before the majesty of the concerned court, and reserving liberty to raise the given-up relief in the subsequent petition(s), if the need so arises.
4. Ld. counsel appearing for the State has strenuously opposed this petition, including the limited relief as confined by the petitioner.
5. Given above, this court is confining the adjudication of this matter to the extent mentioned herein before, reserving the liberty to the petitioner as prayed.
6. The petitioner offers the following explanation in para 3 for non-appearance, which read as follows:

“That pursuant to this complaint a Memorandum of Understanding under Section 147 of the Negotiable Instruments Act 1881 was entered into between the parties to the complaint and pursuant to the same, the complaint under Section 138 was withdrawn and petitioner stood discharged. ”

7. The primary object of service is to secure the accused's presence in trial. The petitioner has approached this court on its own, which establishes the bonafide at this stage. Without adjudicating the explanation offered and stand taken by the petitioner, this court, in the exercise of its inherent powers under section 482 CrPC, deems it appropriate to grant the following limited relief to the petitioner, subject to the compliance of the conditions mentioned in this order.

8. In the present case, the offences were bailable and it was a complaint case.

9. The possibility of the accused henceforth not attending the trial, and the likelihood of fleeing justice, can be taken care of by imposing elaborative and stringent conditions. In Sushila Aggarwal, (2020) 5 SCC 1, Para 92, the Constitutional Bench held that unusually, subject to the evidence produced, the Courts can impose restrictive conditions.

10. Without commenting on the case's merits, and in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case, and also for the reasons mentioned above, the ends of justice would meet with the following order.

11. The petitioner shall surrender before the concerned court within ten days from today. The petitioner shall neither clear the location history, WhatsApp chats, calls nor format the phone without permission of the concerned SHO/I.O. This condition shall continue till the completion of the trial or closure of case, whatever is earlier.

15. Within ten days from today, both the petitioners shall deposit a sum of rupees ten thousand each, in 'High Court Lawyers Welfare Fund,' Account number 65018692589, SB, IFCI code SBIN0050306, Branch Code 50306, Branch Address State Bank of India, High Court Branch, Sector 1, Chandigarh.
