..... Petitioner

VERSUS

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK SIBAL

Present: Mr.P.S.Sekhon, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms.Gunkirat Kaur, AAG, Punjab.

DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (ORAL)

The matter has been taken up through video conferencing.

The present petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for the grant of regular bail in FIR No.208 dated 06.09.2020 registered under Sections 15, 25 and 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985 and Sections 420, 473 and 465 IPC at Police Station Bhikhi, District Mansa.

Briefly stated, the case of the prosecution is that 200 kgs of poppy husk was recovered from a truck of which the petitioner was the conductor.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case; the petitioner is in custody since 06.09.2020; the petitioner has no criminal antecedents; no recovery has been effected from the petitioner's person; the alleged recovery of poppy husk is from a truck of which the petitioner was the conductor and in such capacity he had no knowledge that any narcotics were being transported; investigation in the case is complete and that since till date no prosecution witness has been examined, the petitioner's trial will take a long time to conclude.

Learned State counsel opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner was the conductor of the truck from which 200 kgs of poppy husk was recovered and if released on bail he may indulge in similar offences.

Whether recovery of poppy husk from the truck of which the petitioner was the co-driver was within his knowledge would be debated during the petitioner's trial. However, the petitioner is in custody for the last about one year and five months; there is no other criminal case which the petitioner faces; the investigation in the case is complete and since no prosecution evidence has been led in the petitioner's trial it is likely to take a long time to conclude.

In view of the above, the present case is considered to be a fit one in which the petitioner be directed to be released on regular bail. Resultantly, subject to the satisfaction of the CJM/Duty Magistrate, Mansa the petitioner is directed to be released on bail.

It is clarified that the above observations have been made only for the limited purpose of deciding the present regular bail application and the same would not be construed to be an expression of opinion on the merits of the case.
