...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KSHETARPAL

Present: Mr. Gandharv, Advocate for Mr. Saurabh Bajaj, Advocate for the appellants.

Mr. Jaspal S. Pannu, A.A.G., Haryana.

ANIL KSHETARPAL, J(Oral)

Learned counsel representing the appellants submits that he does not wish to address any arguments. He has been once again requested but he insists on the same.

In any case, this Court has gone through the paper-book. Both the Courts have dismissed the suit filed by the plaintiff for grant of decree of declaration to the effect that the Resolutions dated 24.06.2014 and dated 15.06.2014 are null and void. The plaintiff has also prayed for cancellation of sale deed dated 30.06.2015, whereby the Gram Panchayat sold its land to Panipat Co-op Sugar Mills Ltd. which is a government-owned sugar mill. The property in dispute vests in the Gram Panchayat. The property has been transferred after following the due procedure including permission from the Government. Moreover, the jurisdiction of Civil Court is barred in Section 13 of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act 1961. Hence, no ground to interfere is made out.

Dismissed.

All the pending miscellaneous applications , if any , are also disposed of.
