AUGUSTINE GEORGE MASIH, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the State has brought to the notice of this Court, transfer orders of the officers including the Joint Development Commissioner, who exercises the powers of the appellate authority relatable to the case in hand. He states that in the light of the officer having been transferred and the next date of hearing being 22.06.2022, the application for stay along with the appeal, which has been preferred by the petitioners will be considered on the said date. If not the appeal, atleast the application for stay will be considered and appropriate orders in accordance with law passed thereon.

In the light of the above, we dispose of the present writ petition with an observation that till a decision is taken by the appellate authority atleast on the application for stay, status quo with regard to possession as it exists today shall be maintained till the next date of hearing in the light of the fact that the warrants of possession have been issued qua the land in question.
