...Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present:- Mr. Paul S. Saini, Advocate for the appellant-Insurance Company.

Mr. Yogesh Goyal, Advocate for respondents No.1 to 3.

NIDHI GUPTA J.(Oral)

By filing the present appeal, the appellant-Insurance Company is impugning the Award dated 21.2.2019 passed by the MACT, Faridabad.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the appellant-Insurance Company that Rs.1,00,000/- has been granted towards loss of love and affection, which is highly excessive. However, perusal of the file reveals that nothing has been granted towards parental consortium to the two children of the deceased. As such, if the amount of Rs.1,00,000/- granted on account of love and affection is deleted, the difference after grant of parental consortium, comes to only Rs.20,000/-.

Accordingly, I find no ground to interfere in the Award passed by the Tribunal.

The appeal is hereby dismissed.
